Hi Lisa,

I'd like to e-introduce you to Huston Huddleston, CEO and Founder of the Hollywood Science Fiction Museum and Hollywood Horror Museum. Both museums are non-profits and are looking for a permanent, physical space to call home.

I met with Huston last week and it became apparent to me that a potential fit for a permanent home could be either a warehouse space or something studio-related. I thought it would be appropriate to introduce him to you.

Huston: Lisa Schechter is the executive director of the Hollywood Media District Business Improvement District (B.I.D.) which covers the southern Hollywood area and includes studios, galleries, etc.

Please feel free to contact me at any time.

Best Regards,

Dan Halden
